About Alfonzo Blackwell:

As stated by Grammy Award winning artist James Mtume, "The truth is needed to be told, just as this CD is needed to be heard." SAX YOU DOWN, released on Utopia Records, is the sixth well received CD released by this musical genius. Alfonzo not only masters the Alto, Tenor and Soprano Saxophones, but also plays the bass, drums, guitar and piano. All of which can be heard on this Top 10 Billboard Charting release. Alfonzo is an accomplished songwriter and producer with extensive formal training. His distinctive blend of R&B, contemporary jazz, pop and urban rhythms are displayed on a two disc CD set, the second disc being a creation of hardcore soul, R&B and hip-hop flavored remixes of Disc #1. He has already garnered major radio success with various top 10 hits including "Alfonzo's Love Theme," "Hermina," "Passion" and "Funky Shuffle." Alfonzo's videos have been nominated for Billboard Awards. Alfonzo has also composed themes for movies as well as television, having co-written the theme song for the internationally successful television show, "Baywatch Nights".

Alfonzo says "This project is one that I have poured every ounce of my life experiences into, and it has allowed me to express the music I feel to the fullest, thereby, giving the people what they have been asking me for over the past ten years."
