Southwest Gangstas is the most creatively constructed project put together by a Mexican American ""Chicano"" hip-hop artist, making this album appealing to all hip-hop lovers.

This ex-convict and now college student has been inspired by his own life to write the most creatively constructed lyrics making him the No 1 Chicano rap artist in the nation, the secret to his success is the drive and determination to make people understand and believe that not all Mexican American "Chicano" rap and Hip Hop are the same. He places the knowledge of collage studies into poetically structured street influenced music making him a much more powerful writer, his music is easier to understand and entertains a much broader audience.
