Earlier we told of a Tupac album available at HMV in the UK. (see article HERE)

The album is called 'Ready to Die', with a release date of Jan. 31, 2005.

The copy for the album read -

"Unreleased material by this megastar rapper has been unearthed, which is the spawn of "Ready 2 Die", containing such masterpieces as "Murda Me", "That's Right", "The Money" and "Don't Go To Sleep", making this album a unique concept, and needed by all his fans. Suge Knight takes control of the role of executive producer for the album."

We have spoke to the deathrow administrator who has told us regarding this album - "100% fake, although we do have a Pac album of unheard songs coming in a year or so."

So save your money and wait for the "real deal" to hit.
