According to Forbes.com, hip hop icon Tupac Shakur (2Pac) earned 15 million dollars last year, although he has been deceased for close to 13 years.

In Forbes.com column The Business Of Hip-Hop: Hip-Hop's Cash Kings 2008 by Zack O'Malley Greenburg the top money grosser's in the industry are listed.

Along with Tupac Shakur (2Pac), other hip hop notables listed and mentioned in the article include Shawn "Jay-Z" Carter, Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson, Sean "Diddy" Combs, rap artist Kanye West, and Andre "Dr. Dre" Young.

For some reason the article mentions hip hop mogul Marion 'Suge' Knight and 'rumors' of his involvement in the death of his Death Row Records hip hop / rap superstar Tupac; which lowers the quality of the article. But that aside the article has some good factual info. Check out the entire article at Forbes.Com
