Controversial hip hop MC and hip hop activist N.Y.OIL, notorious for pressing hip hop's hot-button issues via such tracks as "Y'all Should All Get Lynched" & "What Up My Wigger Wigger;" weighs in on the recent conflict surrounding hip hop gangstra rap legend Ice-T and and new kid on the block hip slop MC Soulja Boy.

Examining both sides of this latest hip hop beef, N.Y. OIL drops some knowledge regarding the responsibilities of both the youngsters AND the elders and their respective roles in shaping hip hop's past, present and invariably, its future.

NY OIL makes some very good points in this video. It is good to see hip hop MC's who actually take time to care about things that are going on not only in the hip hop community but in the community at large. Hip Hop is blessed to have a figure like NY OIL who actually gets it and takes time to spread his knowledge.
