The 25th anniversary of Michael Jackson's Thriller will be available on Tuesday, February 12. The Thriller - 25th Anniversary Edition will include the original album in its entirety as well as six tracks previously unreleased in any form from some of the hip hop cultures best performers.

A new remix from hip hop notable Kanye West of "Billie Jean"; hip hop's will.i.am remixes "The Girl is Mine" and "P.Y.T."; hip hop beauty Fergie gives her version of "Beat It"; plus there is "For All Time," a rare unreleased cut from the original Thriller recording sessions, newly mixed and mastered by Michael Jackson: and the first single, a new 2008 version of "Wanna Be Startin' Somethin'" with hip hop super stars Akon and will.i.am.

Also included is a DVD featuring Michael Jackson's groundbreaking short films from Thriller ("Thriller," "Beat It," and "Billie Jean") and the artist's Emmy-nominated breakout performance of "Billie Jean" from the legendary "Motown 25: Yesterday, Today, Forever" television special.

This first single is the new track produced by Akon and Michael Jackson, featuring Akon vocals and new Michael Jackson vocals. Not a remix, but a new version of this classic jam. Check it out HERE .
