

Hip-Hop by Every Means Necessary

Written by Robert ID2368

Friday, 24 February 2006 05:19 -

On Sunday February 26th from 2 to 6 PM at the Lush Life Café in Atlanta, Georgia there will be an open discussion on Hip-Hop and it's Social, Political economic implications on Black People and the Multi-Cultural Global Community.

Minister Server of the Temple of Hip-Hop will speak on 'Declaration of P.E.A.C.E.'.

Professor Griff of the legendary hip-hop rap group Public Enemy will be in attendance also.

Other topics will include:

'Who are the multi- national corporations who own hip-hop.'

'How does negative hip-hop movies effect Black People.'

Let's review the hip-hop movies and see who's keeping it 'Reel or Real'.

The Lush Life Café is located at 1405 Ralph D Abernathy Blvd., Atlanta, Ga. 30325.

The discussion wo;; ne fro, 2- 6 PM Sunday February 26th. If your in the area PLEASE attend.

For more information contact the Lush Life Café at – 404-758-8737

Click HERE to see the flyer.

Hip-Hop by Every Means Necessary

Written by Robert ID2368

Friday, 24 February 2006 05:19 -

More on Professor Griff

writer/producer

www.hdqtrz.com

ProfessorGriff from Public Enemy

www.hdqtrz.com

The HeaDQuarTeRZ for your musical needs

www.kidhoppaz.com

Children's Educational Musical HipHop

Karing Individuals Developing Skills

Musick Bizness Resource Guide

R.I.P Resource Informational PublicationA Book from The X Minista