IN BINKY's HOOD (940pm on Sunday night) 11-16-08 - Well, we have a new name. I am changing the name of my articles to IN BINKY's HOOD. Out here in L.A., we have In Big Boys Neighborhood on Power 106 FM, so I thought I would change my article title.

Any how, whats good ? I been chillin all week and seems nothing has been going on but these fires here in L.A. near Montecito, Sylmar, Diamond Bar and the Anaheim Hills. Of course while hundred of homes was burning down in Montecito, the news said the homes of Oprah, Rob Lowe and Michael Douglas was safe. Let's keep all the other unfortunate people who did lose their homes in our prayers along with the people who have to evacuate.

Sylmar is not that far from my home. I woke up around 4am and ran from room to room to see if my home or someone elses home was on fire. That burnt smell was all upstairs in my home because we had the windows open. When I turned on the news, they mentioned to keep all windows closed. That was Saturday morning and the fires are still going.

I have a friend who lives in the Anaheim Hills and she mentioned they all had to leave their homes. That's close to Disney Land for you folks who are not from out here in Cali. So pray for us folks. We need it. Bad economy and now this. Our whole city is smokey.

Shout out to my cousin Ken Horton who got married to his beautiful wife Dania Last night (Saturday, 11-15-08). Nice wedding over near the coliseum where the Raiders use to play.

Yaw hit up Squeak Ru (legendary west coast hip hop rap artist) regarding his 5 questions with IN BINKY's HOOD. He has not answered his questions so cuss him out at www.myspace.com/squeakru. Nah, don't cuss him out but tell him to get on his grizzly.

I have a solo song on a movie called Harold and Kumar ESCAPE FROM GUANTANAMO BAY that was out earlier this year. The song in the movie is titled "Like That". Check out the DVD when you can. I heard the movie did very well. I will also have some new music up from Keesha Rowe too (www.myspace.com/keesharowe). Look out for new music on her early 2009.
