Controversial Pittsburg hip hop MC and social activist Jasiri X, has released a video for his track Enough is Enough.

The murder of Sean Bell and the recent not guilty verdict against the detectives who fired a total of 50 bullets at his car has brought the Sean Bell case to the forefront and has again cast the light on police brutality.

Not only the hip hop community is outraged. Political and religious leaders have taken the stand of an activist and have spoken out about this senseless tragedy.

Jasiri X is one of many in the hip hop community who has spoke out about the Sean Bell case. Others from the hip hop community who have spoke out are Ice Cube, Chamillionaire, Bun B, The Game, and of course Russell Simmons.

Below is the video by Jasiri X for Enough is Enough

Audio versions of both tracks from Jasiri X - Enough is Enough and Enoughs Enough-Neva Surrender, which were recorded only a few hours after the Sean Bell Verdict can be found on www.ThugLifeArmy.com
